Socrates Noitall

March 8, 2011

Hi. My name is Socrates. I will be teaching this course. I know everything. You know nothing. Watch and learn as best as your tiny brain can. I already know that 90% of you will fail. The other 10% are worthless, but will pass. That's life. Get used to it.

Administrative Staff

Here are some more insulting comments that I wish to make. The class will not see them on the overhead, but I will see them on my laptop.

Administrative Stuff

The Teaching Team

- ▶ Instructor:
 - ▶ Me—Socrates. You can call me God, but that might confuse some of the people that don't know that I'm God.
- ▶ Teaching Assistants:
 - ▶ Knuckleduster O'McFlanagan
 - ▶ Alfarero Peludo
- ▶ The TAs will fail at their jobs.
- ▶ So will you, but that won't be their fault.

I'll be in my office, but don't ever bother me. I will bite your head off. At best, I'll roll my eyes, brush you off, and fail to answer your questions.
